HERMES

'86

Mr. Peter Haggerty

With your quiet sense of humor, you've helped to make the best of these past four years. Because of your hard work and complete dedication, our prom night was filled with the magic of Heaven. We will always remember you as a great person and a true friend. For this and much more, we the Class of '86 are proud to dedicate our book to you, Mr. Peter Haggerty.

Thank You

Don't You Forget About Me

Won't you come see about me
Are we alone, dancing you know it baby
Tell me your troubles and doubts
Giving everything inside and out

Love's strange — so real in the dark Think of the tender things that we were working on
 Slow change may pull us apart
 When that gets into your heart

Don't you try and pretend
It's my feeling we'll win in the end
I won't harm you
Or touch your defenses — vanity, insecurity

Don't you forget about me
 Are we alone, dancing you know it baby
 Going to take you apart
 I'll put us back together at heart

Our prom was held on May 11, 1985. After eating dinner at the Queensbury Hotel, we returned to the school for the dance and the coronation. Almost a week of decorating resulted in the most beautiful gymnasium ever. Bobby Dick and the Sundowners played our theme, Heaven, as the many couples danced throughout the celestial atmosphere. Yellow, pink, blue and white streamers were draped from every corner and met in the center of the ceiling while two sparkling columns marked the entrance into . . . HEAVEN.

My Best Friend

You're a quiet friend
Who plays a silent part,
and this gives you alot more time for listening with your heart.

When you want to talk to a friend
But can't find a single one,
you're always right there,
ready for some fun.

The secrets that we share
About our friends and each other, we don't dare say anything to anyone
Because it wouldn't be fair to one another.

As I look back
This world is full of Friends,
But only one best friend will do
And that one best friend will always be you.

Someone will always be true to you
Someone who will always care, you're that special someone who is always right there.

Take time

Take time for friendship when you can.

The hours fly swiftly, and the need
That presses on your fellowman
May fade away at equal speed
And you may sigh before the end
That you have failed to play the friend.

Not all life's pride is born of fame;

Not all the joy from work is won.
Too late we hang our heads in shame,
Remembering good we could have done;
Too late we wish that we had stayed
To comfort those who called for aid.

Take time to do the little things

Which leave the satisfactory thought,
When other joys have taken wings,
That we have labored as we ought;
That in a world where all contend,
We often stopped to be a friend.
